

1                   She has told me that she wants to examine
2 those, all of those underlying documents, stock transfers,
3 checks and everything else.

4                   You have heard from the plaintiff that she
5 believes this very instrument is false.

6                   THE COURT: "This very instrument" meaning the 7 family trust?

8                   MR. VIE: Family trust. That it's a forgery or that 9 documents have been forged.

10                   And I have offered, in response to the request
11 for production, to make the originals, which I understand the 12 trust attorney, those attorneys in the other lawsuit, to make 13 those available for inspection and copying so that she can 14 see them and satisfy herself that the underlying trust is in 15 fact a legal and appropriate trust.

16                   THE COURT: Okay.

17                   MR. VIE: So that was one of the --

18                   THE COURT: And that the signatures have not been 19 forged or at least they're original signatures.

20                   MR. VIE: Yes. In other words, one problem of 21 trying to settle the disposition of the trust today is that 22 the plaintiff disputes the accuracy of the accounting and the 23 accuracy and legitimacy of the trust.

24                   THE COURT: Right.

25                   MR. VIE: And so, that was one issue.
