Ms. Smith and Ms. Walsh will testify as to the reasonableness and necessity of attorneys' fees regarding the issues in this cause, which were incurred by Carole Ann Brunsting. Their testimony will be based on their experience in handling same or similar matters in and around Harris County and the State of Texas. Redacted fee and expense invoices and/or reports will be produced prior to trial. Ms. Smith and Ms. Walsh are of the opinion that fees charged by them, fellow shareholders and associates, and paralegals under their supervision, and expenses incurred by Carole Ann Brunsting with respect to these proceedings are reasonable, necessary, equitable and just, and will be based on their review of redacted fee and expense invoices and/or reports, the pleadings, discovery, correspondence exchanged between counsel and with the Court, evidence adduced in discovery and at trial, and all other documents in any way relating to this proceeding. After review of the above, they may also opine as to whether the attorneys' fees of other parties are reasonable, equitable and just.

Their opinions will also be based on, but not limited to, the following relevant factors:

- a. the time and labor required, the novelty and difficulty of the questions involved, and the skill requisite to perform the legal service properly;
- b. the fee customarily charged in Harris County, Texas, for similar legal services;
- c. the amount involved and the results obtained;
- d. the time limitations imposed by the circumstances;

- e. the experience, reputation, and ability of the lawyer or lawyers performing the services;
- f. likelihood that the acceptance of the particular employment will preclude other employment by the lawyer;
- g. the nature and length of the professional relationship with the client; and
- h. the results obtained.

A copy of Ms. Smith's and Ms. Walsh's resumes are attached hereto as Exhibits A and B.

- 2. Carole Ann Brunsting reserves the right to cross examine each expert timely designated by any other party.
- 3. Carole Ann Brunsting reserves the right to designate additional experts, the need for whom are not yet known, or who are rebuttal experts.
