Subject: Proposed Brunsting Mediation

I am surprised by your suggestion that there is unanimous agreement to what you have proposed. That is not my understanding. I thought I made it clear in our phone conversation that I had concerns about the proposed procedure and whether the chances of it being successful would justify the cost my client would have to incur.

The reduction of your proposed fee to $1000/party, while appreciated, does not eliminate those concerns.

BOBBIE, STEVE & NEAL:

It is my understanding that the Brunsting siblings unanimously agree to participate in Mediation of all matters in dispute. However, I shall not proceed without your unanimous approval and willingness to participate. I do not contemplate meeting with all parties on a date certain. However, I will ask permission to confer with you and your clients via telephone conference, and contemplate meeting with attorneys and clients as necessary.

Please confirm your agreement via responsive email.

(I have reduced the mediation fee to $1,000 per party. Payment is not contingent on settlement)

Sorry, this got away from me today. I am not going to be around much next week, and I am trying to schedule some things because I am leaving town at the end of the week. Let me try to come up with a time we can talk and get back with you. Have a great Labor Day.
