Mr. Mendel will testify about the amount, reasonableness, and necessity of any attorneys' fees, expenses, and/or costs sought by any party in this case, including fees, expenses, and costs paid or incurred by the Defendant/Co-Trustees. Mr. Mendel's opinions are based on his skill, knowledge, education, experience, and training, and the work conducted in this case and cases related to this case, such as the 2012 and 2016 federal court cases, and the appeals related thereto, the plaintiff's bill of review, the plaintiff's efforts to domesticate an instrument that is not a final judgment, claims asserted against Vacek & Freed, and administration of the decedent and survivor trusts. Mr. Mendel's opinions are based on factors that include, but may not be limited to: (1) the time and labor required; (2) the nature of the issues raised in the case; (3) the skill requisite to perform the legal service properly; (4) the preclusion of other employment by the attorneys due to acceptance of this case; (5) the customary fee in such cases; (6) the nature of the fee arrangement; (7) time limitations imposed by the client or the circumstances; (8) the amount of the potential judgment and the results that may be obtained; (9) his experience, reputation, and ability of himself and those who assisted him with this case; (10) whether the case imposed any hardship on his law firm and/or his litigation docket; and (11) the nature of his professional relationship with Defendant/Co-Trustee Anita K. Brunsting. As of February 28, 2022, Mr. Mendel opines that the attorneys' fees, expenses, and costs will be not less than $500,000.00 and, in reasonable probability will be higher because of additional work to perform between March 1, 2022, through the date of a final judgment and any appeals that may arise. See billing records attached hereto as Exhibit A.
