

GRIFT OF THE BRUNSTING'S

THE AUTHORS' INTRODUCTION

When my best friend suffered emotional trauma at the realization that her little sisters had implemented a plan to steal her share of the family trust inheritance, I gave my word that I would help her defend her rights in that property. That right in pro-per-ty (possession, dominion and control) vested equally in each of the five beneficiaries at the death of their mother on 11/11/2011 and should have been divided by 5 immediately after the passing of the last trust settlor. It should have been a quick easy process but I had no idea of the cesspool of human moral depravity I would be exposing myself to at the time I gave my word.

Just being forced to have interaction with the kind of seedy hominid garbage identified here, is an outrage to any notion of decency. These predatory creatures are only interested in protecting their own interest. They don't give a damn about the law or their client. They are only interested in generating an excuse to stuff their pockets, demanding fealty under the label of fees for legal services.

Having witnessed the charade first hand, I will give my opinion out front. The probate mafia is a cabal of white-collar criminals, with barrister association membership cards, colluding together under the color of "practicing law" and using the state probate courts to rob, loot and pillage the individual and collective wealth of the American people. There are two general methods used, one is the kidnap, robbery and murder of our elders under the glorifying banner of "Guardianship Protection". The second method is the interception of family generational asset transfers (stealing family trusts and decedent's estates) using a variety of staged litigation schemes.

Among the most prominent artifices facilitating this organized crime enterprise are doctrines of impunity, of every variety the imagination can conjure. Delay, attrition, obstruction, sanctions, vexatious litigant branding and other artifice lend to the task of extorting capitulations and laundering filthy lucre by "settlement agreement" a/k/a/ a "contract".

WHAT IS A TRUST?

A trust is an abstraction that serves as a container object. It is a mechanism used for the transfer of property. A trust is defined as "a relationship" wherein one party (Grantor or Settlor) places property under the care of another (trustee) who holds the property entrusted for the beneficial enjoyment of another.

A “trust” (noun) is created by a contract of indenture in which legal and equitable titles to assets are separated and where one person, the trustee (a fiduciary) holds bare legal title to property for the benefit of another, (the beneficiary) who holds equitable title to enjoyment of the assets held in trust. The beneficiary is considered the true owner of the property.

A trust indenture is distinguished from other types of contracts by the separation of legal and equitable titles to the property placed in trust. If for any reason legal and equitable titles merge, the trust collapses and property vests solely in the beneficiary. The other necessary element is that the obligations of the trustee must be active and not merely nominal and the obligations of the trustee must be enforceable by the beneficiary. If the trust becomes passive; both legal and equitable titles merge in the beneficiary (the trust collapses) and property vests solely in the beneficiary.

When the nature of the relationship is fiduciary, the trustee owes duties to the beneficiary and above all of those duties is the duty of fealty (undivided loyalty). The trustee owes a duty of undivided loyalty to the beneficiary and the duty of loyalty cannot be waived as the oath of fealty is an element inherent to the indenture.

Trusts began under English feudal law in the 16th Century as a means of avoiding the brutal death taxes imposed on decedent’s estates by the crown and the papacy. Trusts were originally referred to as fee-offs. The feoffee to offer, now called “trustee”, would accept the appointment to serve as a fiduciary, by swearing an oath of fealty. An oath of fealty, from the Latin “fidelitas” (faithfulness), is a pledge of allegiance of one person to another. One interested, can research the history and modernization of oaths and affirmations. International Law Research; Vol. 9, No. 1; 2020.¹

THE PROBATE MAFIA

My definition of probate mafia is a “color of law” criminal enterprise run out of state municipal corporation-controlled probate courts. It is an industry designed for the few to steal the lifetime acquired and productive wealth of the many. This dissertation is a single case study involving one local, Harris County Texas, Probate Court No. 4, but it can only be distinguished from similar operations conducted in other probate courts in every other such venue, by the familial particulars and the active and passive participants in each individual case. There are many individual cases and they can be told out of every municipal corporate controlled court room in America whether, family law, traffic, civil or criminal. The American political and legal institutions have become little more than a Praetorian Guard for licensed predators.

When longitudinal and cross sectional studies are performed from the public record, a common modus operandi emerges to reveal a pattern of exploitation that utilizes the same artifices and accomplishes the same ends in each theater: Fiduciary Betrayal, Obstruction, evasion, intimidation, defamation, attrition, and collusion, refusal to respect distinctions, disregard for the rules, sanctions and the manufacture of vexatious litigant labels, whether the criterion is met or not, and these are hallmark artifices. No law is allowed to get in the way of this color of law thievery cabal with their bar association issued Letters of Mark.

The probate mafia is a gang. Like the five families of the Cosa Nostra, each operation is a subsidiary of the color of law mob, an association with complete control of access to justice via an exclusive monopoly on agency in America's judicial theaters. I call them theaters because they are as legitimate as any other day time soap opera or thespian performance. You may as well just call them fleecing grounds and if you want to know how fast they can get to the money, just drop by any traffic court any day of the week and watch the gavel fall Bam $ Bam $ Bam $.

THE MONEY COW HOSTAGE FOR RANSOM GAME

The Brunsting family's living trust [the money cow] has been held hostage in a probate court with no pending probate administration for more than eight years. Nothing has been resolved and no distributions have, or will be made, to the mandatory income beneficiaries unless and until they agree to pay a filthy lucre ransom, under the label of "attorney fees" that are not authorized by the published law.²

² In economic or game theory, a zero sum game is a situation in which one person or group can gain something only by causing another person or group to lose it. ~ Meriam-Webster.com, Meriam Webster n.d., 9 August 2017. The attorney fee demands submitted under the "confidentiality provisions of the Texas Evidence Code" is properly defined as extortion as the covert demand itself is not lawful.

In Texas, as a general rule attorney's fees cannot be awarded to a litigant by a court unless either (1) a statute authorizes the award or (2) a contract between the parties authorized the recovery of attorney's fees in the event of a suit brought pursuant to the contract.

Pleadings must be clear that attorney's fees are being sought as a result of reliance upon a statute or upon a contract between the parties. After the pleadings are properly filed, the party must introduce admissible evidence regarding the fees and must secure affirmative fact findings by the court or by the jury.

This family was taken for a ride by an estate planning attorney bait and switch on the front end and now the money cow hostage takers want the victims to enter into a settlement agreement (contract) they have no intentions of honoring. They just want to stuff their pockets, launder the ransom by contract as if it was for fees for services rendered and, change the argument from breach of trust to breach of contract. The settlement agreement (1) has the attorneys hands in the money cow trough before the owners of the property get a dime AND it doesn't stop there. The "Settlement Agreement" is just another bait and switch and this one is on the back side of the long con.

On February 25, 2022 Trust Beneficiary Candace Curtis, having been pro se for much of the attrition and obstruction segment and being unwilling to capitulate to the exploitation attorneys bait and switch "Settlement offer" finally put in writing... $537,000.00, was AJUDGED TO HAVE FORFEITED HER PROPERTY INTERESTS and holding that none of her exhibits had been authenticated. The simple fact is that summary judgment is only appropriate where there are no facts in dispute and in all the time this family has been held hostage in a theater with no lawful authority, there has not been even one evidentiary hearing, with the exception of the wiretap recording hearing in the probate court. There were no witnesses called to testify at the wire tap hearing in the probate court and no order following that hearing was ever entered. The emergency motion for a protective order was used as an excuse to evade the summary Judgement hearings scheduled for that day and there wouldn't be another docket control order for more than six years and none of the pending motions were ever actually ruled on. In fact the only person to actually say anything that could be considered testimony were Carole Brunsting pro se and Candace Curtis pro se. All of the other dialog has been the dialog of attorneys by attorneys and for attorneys. None of them have done anything in the interest of their clients except one... That SINGLE HONEST ATTORNEY has to be careful about what she says and how she says it for fear of being sanctioned and having her "License" to practice law suspended but she is actually a heroine in this tale as she, “by her appearance alone” destroyed the malicious inheritance hijackers scheme to fraudulently manufacture a “vexatious litigant” label that would have the pro se needing to ask the court for permission to file any pleadings.

Thus, without an evidentiary hearing, the beneficiary is summarily “disinherited” without explanation.

I figure it like this... If I am going to be cheated out of the fruits of my work product and if Candace is going to be robbed of more than $1,000,000.00, I’m going to have fun exposing these color-of-law larcenists for what they really are, criminals.

The probate racketeers point to precatory language stating the settlors do not want a contested proceeding unless it is implemented by or with the permission of the trustee but precatory language is not controlling. Candy’s insistence that the probate mob respect her parents’ intentions does not trigger an in Terrorem clause and neither does refusing to pay ransom or suing the trustee to compel fiduciary performance.

Did I mention that in more than eight years that were no evidentiary hearings in the probate court? Did I mention that trust beneficiary Candace Curtis couldn’t buy an evidentiary hearing in the probate court?

The case study in point is one I call:

GRIFT OF THE BRUNSTING'S

ARTIFICE: BAIT AND SWITCH

Grift of the Brunsting's is a two part operation best described as a long con. It begins on the front end with an estate planning attorney bait and switch where an estate planning attorney locates vulnerable assets by identifying a weak link in the family moral fabric, betrays the fiduciary duty of undivided loyalty, forms conflicting confidential relationships, cultivates conflicting interests and applies the Divide and Conquer methodology with the objective of creating controversy among the stake holders. The incremental encroachments follow the “Hurrah’s” (family crisis events).

Once the estate planning attorneys have fomented litigation on the front end, the predatory attorneys in the exploitation phase break down communications among the suckers and take control with the sole intention of manufacturing a demand for fees. As in the case in point the money cow is held hostage for ransom while the real parties are threatened and told the longer they resist the more the fees. The predators have no intention of reaching the merits and no intention of honoring any settlement agreements. The entire point of a settlement agreement is to change the argument so they can generate more fraudulent demands for fees.

To make the topic manageable, I will provide an outline showing the Hurrah's and the actions that followed each as a visual makes it all too obvious. It is what it looks like.

14. NOVEMBER 11, 2011 NELVA BRUNSTING DEMISE

Everything appears legitimate up until Elmer was declared Non Compos Mentis. It should be noted that the trust became irrevocable when Elmer could no longer make legal or financial decisions and that is when implementation of the “switch” began. Notwithstanding the trust becoming irrevocable, within two weeks of the first Hurrah (A), the estate planning Grifters began their incremental alteration of the Settlers Trust Agreement, inserting their own terms. The first alteration was to return Anita Brunsting to the position of successor trustee, a position from which she had been jointly removed by Elmer and Nelva with the 2005 Restatement. (Article IV)

The back end operation is an attorney exploitation scheme and the artifices are consistent with other such cases: attorney betrayal, attorney collusion, attrition, threats, intimidation, defamation, obstruction, avoidance, sanctions, and the fraudulent manufacture of the “vexatious litigant” label for those who stand on their own. The perpetrators hide from accountability using judicial and attorney immunity, the probate exception and the Rooker-Schnooker, not to mention the industries reluctance to expose their brethren to accountability and the overwhelming support of other filthy lucre soup line trough swiller’s and municipal corporate employee/appointees.

I describe the back end exploitation of the Brunsting family as a Frankensuit because it is a scheme designed to be like a “Medusa/Hydra quagmire” keeping the victims in stasis until all the money has been stolen, under the pretext of fealties for services, a.k.a. FEE’S, where the attorney collusion and incestuous conflicts of interest are only overshadowed by the participants abject moral depravity, absolute disrespect for the rule of law and disdain for the rights of the people who fall victim to the predatory probate scheme. I will define each prop and artifice in context as they raise their ugly heads and Oh boy do they raise their ugly heads. Pay close attention to "How to Steal Your Family Inheritance" as that is both the stink bait and the road map for the front end manufacture of trust and estate looting controversy.

3RD PARTY INTERCEPTION OF A FAMILY GENERATIONAL ASSET TRANSFER

- Locate family generational wealth
- Identify vulnerable assets
- Form confidential relationships
- Cultivate conflicting interests

The Williams Group Report shows 60% of failed family generational wealth transfers are directly attributable to the break down in family communications. It should be noted here that the first thing an attorney does is disrupt communications between the real parties in interest; the “marks”, “pigeons”, “fish” or “suckers” as they are often referred to in confidence game design language.

FIND THE MONEY

Estate Planning Attorneys advertise their services as "asset protection". Who are these people who want to “take what you have”?

IDENTIFY VULNERABLE ASSETS

Find a weak link in the family moral fabric, fuel the greed and selfishness of the weak link and feed the bonfire of any animosity that can be found among “The Marks” family.

FORM CONFIDENTIAL RELATIONSHIPS WITH THE WEAK LINK

Betrayal of the estate planning attorney's duty of undivided loyalty, owed to the estate planning client, and convincing the weak link that they can get it all, is the prelude to the final front end phase.

CREATE CONTROVERSY

Controversy is the key that opens the door to third party interlopers.

BREAK DOWN FAMILY COMMUNICATIONS

The first accomplishment of an attorney is to break down communications among the suckers. Attorneys do this as a matter of course, acting as if the client/victims have to follow the association rules that the attorneys are bound by, but don't bother to observe. Breaking down communications among the victims puts the third party interlopers in the driver's seat where they can fuel the conflict among the victims by keeping their clients in the dark, manipulating their legal and moral weaknesses, and feeding them a steady diet of horse shit. This is all facilitated by the bar association monopoly on agency in the court system.

CHUMMING FOR SUCKERS

I suspect that the article floating around the web titled "How to Steal Your Family Inheritance" was probably written by an estate planning Grifter as this is the frontend outline for the case in point. What is most amusing in the case in point is how easy it was for estate planning attorney Candace Kunz-Freed to convince the morally weak Anita Brunsting that she would be the beneficiary of the estate planning attorney's dishonesty and betrayal of the fiduciary duty of undivided loyalty owed to the actual clients, her parents.

THE FRONT END

In 1996 Elmer Brunsting and his wife Nelva Brunsting created the original Brunsting Family Living Trust for their benefit and for the benefit of their five children, Candace, Carl, Carole, Amy and Anita. The trust was part of an estate plan that included pour-over-wills and various powers of attorney that Elmer and

Nelva purchased as both a product and a service of attorney Albert Vacek Jr., the Vacek Law Firm. al@vacek.com, 11777 Katy Freeway, Suite 300 South, Houston, Texas 77079

WHAT DID VACEK DELIVER?

Elmer Brunsting passed April 1, 2009. Nelva Brunsting passed November 11, 2011. Remainder rights in entrusted property vested equally in each of the five beneficiaries at the passing of the second Settlor, under the private law of the trust and, under the public law of Texas (Tex. Est. Code §101.001).

In more than nine years not one dime from the family trust has been distributed to the income beneficiaries. In fact, the family trust has been held captive in Harris County Probate Court No. 4 without an evidentiary hearing, and without resolving even one substantive issue related to the controversy intentionally created by Vacek & Freed attorneys Bernard Lile Mathews III,³ and Candace Kunz-Freed. That controversy has since been multiplied by a host of interlopers, each seeking their own unjust self-enrichment, via participation in concert with the other performers in the mock probate court cinema designed solely to the fleecing of family generational wealth.

As can be seen Elmer and Nelva Brunsting selected Anita Brunsting as the sole successor trustee in the 1996 trust agreement. Elmer and Nelva amended their trust in 1999 to grant a $100,000.00 advance to Anita Brunsting as an offset to her future expectancy. The original 1996 trust was replaced and superseded in its entirety by the 2005 restatement. The 2005 Restatement removed Defendant Anita Brunsting from the list of successor trustees, replacing Anita with Amy Brunsting and Carl Brunsting as successor co-trustees.

³ Location unknown

Elmer and Nelva amended the 2005 restatement in 2007 replacing Article IV in its entirety. Article IV contains the trustee and successor trustee designations. The 2007 Amendment removed Defendant Amy Brunsting from the list of successor co-trustees and added Candace Curtis as successor co-trustee with Carl.

For the first time, the Brunsting trust settlors added a 3rd party, Frost Bank, as the alternate successor trustee should both Carl and Candace cease to serve. This is a clear indication that Elmer and Nelva did not want Anita, Carole or Amy to be empowered by or burdened with the obligations of a trustee.

THE SWITCH

Vacek & Freed attorney Candace Kunz-Freed, along with staff attorney Bernard Lilse Mathews III, betrayed the fiduciary duty of undivided loyalty Vacek & Freed owed to their clients, Elmer and Nelva Brunsting, and formed a conflicting confidential relationship with Anita Brunsting, one of five named beneficiaries of the trust agreement that Elmer and Nelva Brunsting purchased as both a product and a service of Albert Vacek Jr., The Vacek Law Firm.

E. JUNE 9, 2008 THE 1ST "HURRAH", ELMER DECLARED NON COMPOS MENTIS

Article III of the 2005 Restatement contains the provisions for altering or amending the Trust and it requires (1) the signature of both settlors or (2) a court of competent jurisdiction. On June 9, 2008 Nelva emailed Anita telling her that three doctors had determined Elmer was no longer competent to handle financial or legal matters, effectively rendering the trust agreement irrevocable. None-the-less, within two weeks (July 1, 2008 appointment) the Vacek & Freed P.L.L.C. attorneys implemented their first illicit change to the irrevocable trust, wherein they removed Candace Curtis name from the list of successor co-trustees and replaced her with Anita Brunsting. This put their new client, Anita Brunsting, back in the very position from which Anita had been removed by Elmer and Nelva acting jointly in the 2005 Restatement. This "July 1, 2008 appointment" also removed Candace Curtis from the position Elmer and Nelva had jointly placed her in with the 2007 Amendment, the last trust instrument signed by both trust Settlers.

A July 1, 2008 Certificate of trust appears in the paper work unsigned but it is clear to see from this certificate that the Vacek Team already had plans to change the legal name of the trust and take Elmer's name completely out of it. However, because Elmer was incompetent and not deceased, there was no survivor's trust to change trustee appointments for, and since the successor co-trustees for the family trust had been selected by Elmer and Nelva jointly, the successor co-trustees for the family trust could not be changed by Nelva alone under the terms of Article IV (D) of the restatement. Thus, when Elmer passed on April 1, 2009 the successor co-trustees for the irrevocable Family and Decedent's trusts could only be those named in the 2007 Amendment -- Carl Brunsting and Candace Curtis, with Frost Bank as the alternate. The July 1, 2008 Certificate of trust is invalid.

F. APRIL 1, 2009, THE 2ND "HURRAH", THE DEATH OF ELMER BRUNSTING

An identical certificate to the one not signed on July 1, 2008 appears to have been signed by Nelva alone on February 24, 2010 and the steady encroachment thus continued as the Vacek & Freed Attorneys improper changes to Elmer and Nelva's trust agreement are implemented one incremental alteration at a time, with usurper, "Anita Brunsting" now fraudulently embedded as a successor co-trustee.

June 15, 2010 QBD/TPA [V&F 349-351]

The Qualified Beneficiary Designation is found in Article III and mentioned in a couple other places of no real significance. Its purpose is to allow an original Settlor to designate a different disposition for their share of the trust assets. The Qualified Beneficiary Designation (Q.B.D.) only applies to the share of the Settlor that exercised the power. Elmer did not exercise a Q.B.D. and thus, this instrument could only apply to Nelva's share, which is not a big deal since it merely authorized an advance on a future expectancy. It was totally unnecessary to do an accounting in this fashion. Worse yet, this alleged Qualified Beneficiary Designation (Q.B.D.) is blended with an alleged Testamentary Power of Appointment (T.P.A.)

THE JACK IN THE BOX

The Testamentary Power of Appointment (T.P.A.) is alleged to be found in Article IX and claims to empower the Surviving Settlor to change at death what they could not alter in life, an irrevocable A/B trust agreement. This is a convenient way to claim the surviving Settlor made changes (they had no power to make) without them being available to say "That's Not True"! This little game only works because of the collusion of the courts. Disposition for Nelva's share (survivors trust share) could be changed, but the disposition of Elmer's share could not.

G. 2010-07-03 THE 3RD "HURRAH", CARL FALLS ILL AND IS IN COMA

BINGO! When Carl fell weak the Vacek & Freed team went to work again, only this time, they outdid themselves. When Carl fell ill and was in a coma, Anita took that as an opportunity to launch a character attack on Carl's wife Drina, thus distracting attention from the changes she and the Freed crew were making to remove Carl as a successor co-trustee. Candace Kunz-Freed's notes say "Anita called, Carl has encephalitis, amendment to trust, Anita and Amy to be co-trustees". This family crisis provided the opportunity for the Vacek & Freed team to continue their alteration of Elmer and Nelva's trust agreement and this was where they implemented their alteration of Article IX, found at pages 39-41 of the 2005 Restatement.

On August 25, 2010, The Freed and Mathews duo implemented their 2nd Q.B.D./T.P.A. with their new successor trustee appointment documents, ½ farm interest transfer and some other nonsense. These instruments complete the dismantling of Elmer and Nelva's trust agreement and guarantees the future litigation.

- 2010-08-25 Qualified Beneficiary Designation AND Testamentary Power of Appointment under living trust agreement.

After litigation has been initiated, this instrument surfaces bearing three different signature pages versions.

When Nelva discovered the illicit changes she sent Candace Curtis a greeting card and called Candace Kunz-Freed, telling her to "change it back". Candace Freed's reaction to having her betrayal exposed was to force her client, Nelva Brunsting, to submit to the humility of a competency examination.

Anita and Amy Brunsting and their close knit defector, Candace Kunz-Freed, failed in their attempt to have a very lucid Nelva Brunsting declared incompetent. Thus, after disfiguring the Family, Decedent's, and Survivor's trusts with the 8/25/2010 Q.B.D.T.P.A. abomination, they were still not satisfied that the scheme to steal their siblings' inheritance expectancy was fool proof.

The story is that on December 21, 2010 , Anita, Amy, and Candace Kunz-Freed converged on Nelva in her own home, leaving Nelva no place to retreat, whereupon, Nelva is alleged to have voluntarily signed resignation papers that gave Anita total control over the assets of the entire Brunsting family of trusts as sole trustee. What is of a particular note is that the signature of Nelva Brunsting on the resignation document appears to be an image stamp, and the signature of Anita Brunsting accepting the appointment also appears to be a digital image stamp. Most notably, the notary on the December 21, 2010 instruments was disloyal estate planning attorney Candace Kunz-Freed. None of the instruments referenced are actually in evidence as one of the trademarks of the color-of-law probate mob is that you can't buy an evidentiary hearing in Harris County Probate Court No. 4.

There were also three new Certificates of Trust signed on December 21, 2010 (1) Survivors Trust (2) The New Family Trust and (3) the Decedent's Trust. Anita Brunsting had now seized sole control of the family trust with Amy Brunsting designated as having been returned to Article IV as Anita's future co-trustee.

These changes can only be justified by the abuse of the trust language regarding the resignation of an original Settlor and total disregard for such distinctions as "irrevocable". The family trust became irrevocable after Elmer's incompetency certification June 9, 2008, which was prior to the myriad of improper changes, as an A/B trust requiring both Founders' signatures to effect any changes, could not be changed by the settlor. The only alternative was for Nelva to ask a Court of Competent Jurisdiction to stand in for Elmer and approve of the proposed changes. That didn't happen and "equity" presumes that which should have been done to have been done. The only valid trust instruments are the 2005 Restatement as amended in 2007.

Let's take it a step deeper and look at the theory of digital forgery. Nelva's signature on the resignation document exhibits, that I've seen, (pdf's) appear as digital stamps and not photo copies of wet signed instruments.

H. 2011-11-11 THE FOURTH HURRAH, THE PASSING OF NELVA BRUNSTING

THE BACK END EXPLOITATION

This is the point in How to Steal Your Family Inheritance where Anita Brunsting, little miss "steal the family trust", is supposed to laugh all the way to the bank. Let's see how that pans out.

The fish takes the hook thinking to find food but it is the fisherman that enjoys the meal.

I had been overhearing conversations and was well aware of the overtones and the emotional animosity created by Anita, Amy and Candace Kunz-Freed as a diversion while their illicit takeover was being planned and executed. Candy had already asked for copies of trust documents and had received enough to know there was a problem. Candy already had Nelva's hand written note saying That's Not True, you will get your share! While Candy had reservations, her concern was for her mother. Candy did not want to exacerbate the stress Nelva had already been forced to endure.

I met Nelva Brunsting shortly before her passing. Candy and I were in Houston because I was doing a guest performance at Reliant Stadium with the late and legendary Braille Blues Daddy Bryan Lee. I recall Nelva sighing under her breath as she said "all the fighting". I didn't grasp the significance then, but I do now.

THE PASSIVE AGGRESSIVE "IN TERRORUM" INVOCATION

I had been overhearing phone conversations between Candace and her sister Carole while all of the A&A shenanigans were going on. When Nelva passed it had already become clear what Anita had in mind and when Candy asked for an accounting the grape vine had it that A&A were laughing and saying Candace was going to get "disinherited for challenging the trust". This was the point where Candy broke into tears and, unable to comfort her, I finally said she would have to sue them. When she said, "How am I going to do that? I can't afford to hire an attorney?" I said, "I'll help you with the paperwork." That was when a little voice inside my head said "Was that my voice I just heard?" That was in November of 2011.

Candy worked at an office in the day time while I did my best to research and write a breach of fiduciary action for the federal court. We would discuss my progress at the end of each day as we were both learning at the same time.

THE BRUNSTING FRANKENSUITS

FEBRUARY 27, 2012 SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF TEXAS

We filed Candy's lawsuit into the United States District Court for the Southern District of Texas, Houston Division, styled: Candace Louise Curtis vs. Anita Brunsting, Amy Brunsting and Does 1-100 No. 4:12-cv-592. We didn't know much about the topic and rather than risk appearing reactionary, we put everything we had on the table out front. All of our suspicions and conclusions about Anita's plan to steal the family trust have been verified by the record at this juncture, (October 17, 2022)

WHAT DOES THE TRUST SAY?

It would be meaningful at this juncture to look at the trust instrument as exhibited by Defendant Co-Trustees Anita Brunsting and Amy Brunsting. One will note that Article XII Section B reads as follows:

"Section B. Powers to Be Exercised in the Best Interests of the Beneficiaries

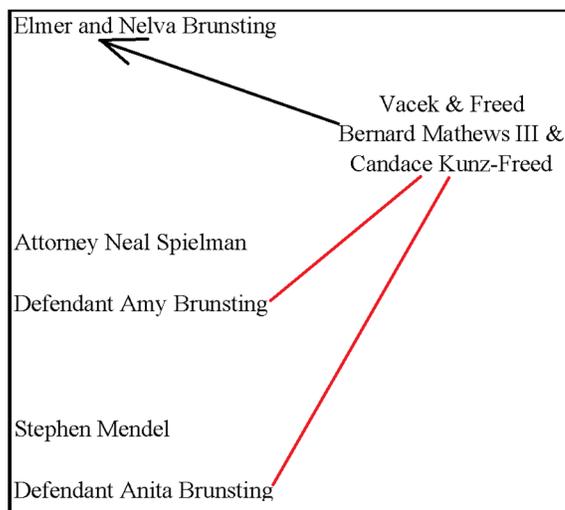

The "Trustee shall exercise the following administrative and investment powers without the order of any court, as the Trustee determines in its sole and absolute discretion to be in the best interests of the beneficiaries. -

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this agreement, the Trustee shall not exercise any power in a manner inconsistent with the beneficiaries' right to the beneficial enjoyment of the trust property in accordance with the general principles of the law of trusts.

The Trustee may perform every act reasonably necessary to administer each and every share or trust created under this agreement."

It would be normal to conclude that the powers granted to the trustees are restricted to only be exercised in a manner consistent with the beneficiaries' right to the beneficial enjoyment of the trust property, in the best interests of the beneficiaries, in accordance with the general principles of the law of trusts.

One will see none of it in this scenario.

CONFLICTING INTERESTS DIAGRAM 1

On March 6, 2012 Vacek & Freed staff attorney Bernard Mathews,⁴ appearing under the letterhead “Green and Mathews”, filed a motion for an emergency order accompanied by a false affidavit signed and verified by Defendant Amy Brunsting. Defendants Anita and Amy Brunsting were initially represented by Bernard Lisle Mathews III in the federal court (Mathews).

In summary, Vacek and Freed Attorneys Candace Kunz-Freed and Bernard Lilse Mathews III betrayed the fiduciary duty of undivided loyalty owed to clients Elmer and Nelva Brunsting, and formed a conflicting confidential relationship with Anita Brunsting and Amy Brunsting, two of the five intended beneficiaries of Elmer and Nelva's trust agreement. When sued in the Southern District of Texas,

Anita and Amy Brunsting appeared represented by the apparent author of the illicit instruments, Vacek & Freed P.L.L.C. staff attorney Bernard Lisle Mathews III.

Mathews appeared using a "Green and Mathews law firm label to conceal his direct conflict of interest and his blatant violation of the Disciplinary Rules of Professional Conduct. Thus, after betraying their client's, Elmer and Nelva Brunsting, forming conflicting relationships with Anita & Amy Brunsting and fomenting controversy, the Vacek Team takes sides with their new clients against Candy Curtis, one of the three trust beneficiary's disenfranchised by the Vacek & Freed P.L.L.C. estate planning attorney's betrayal of the fiduciary duty of loyalty owed to Elmer and Nelva Brunsting.

THROWING AMY UNDER THE BUS

The collusion between estate planning attorney Candace Kunz-Freed and Anita Brunsting, the weak link in the family moral fabric, was all on Candace Kunz-Freed and her proclamation that Anita Brunsting had become sole trustee over everything, despite the fact that Article IV could not be amended to affect Elmer's irrevocable trust share. Worse yet, the Vacek & Freed QBD/TPA authorized the disloyalty of self-dealing with the notion that anyone who objects to the trustees conduct would be "challenging the trust" when that had already been accomplished and was now being exacerbated.

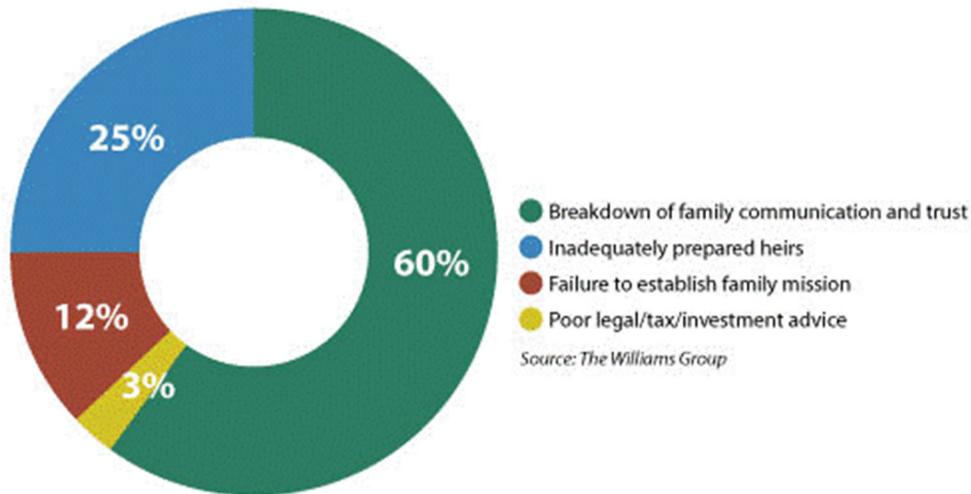

Amy had no accountability for Anita's misapplications of fiduciary, (beginning on December 21, 2010) and all Amy had to do to protect herself when litigation began was to file an exception to the previous trustee conduct. None-the-less, the Freed & Mathews duo threw Amy under the bus when they wrote a letter to Frost Bank from Co-trustee Amy Brunsting, (acceptance of the appointment by conduct), and when they filed a false affidavit into the Southern District of Texas in Amy's name, making claims of the existence of trust shares that remain unfulfilled after more than nine years.

What we will discover as this dissertation of the record continues is that the Williams Report diagram of causes, only scratched the surface layer, a.k.a. the result. Once we dig under the surface we find that the 12% attributed to failure to establish family mission has 0% application to the facts of this case, where the settlors had pour-over-wills with the living trust as the sole devisee.

We can also see that the 3% attributed to poor Legal, Tax and Investment Advice can be 100% attributed to estate planning attorney disloyalty. The 25% attributed to "inadequately prepared heirs" can also be blamed on the estate planning attorneys as none of the Brunsting family had been schooled on the probate mafia bait and switch, what it means when a trust becomes irrevocable, why a pour-over-will avoids probate or that little miss "steal the family trust" does not laugh for very long.

Lastly, the Victim Family was never told that the 60% breakdown in communications can be pinned on estate planning attorney creation of controversy, fueling of emotions and the introduction of other attorneys into the dispute.

Insert attorney = instant break down in communication among the real parties in interest.

MARCH 8, 2012 DISMISSAL RE; THE PROBATE EXCEPTION

The federal suit was dismissed sua sponte under the probate exception to federal court jurisdiction on March 8, 2012. [There's a probate exception?] This was the first time I had ever heard of the probate exception but I had heard that a pour-over-will in combination with a living trust was supposed to avoid probate. "How" is another question? However, this dismissal event leads to researching different questions and the drafting my first federal appeal. $10,000

On December 19, 2012, I received a disingenuous reply from Notary Freed and on December 26, 2012, I sent a second certified mail request to Mz. There are some anomalies with the notary records of Candace Kunz-Freed that I haven't thought about in a while, as today is Monday, June 14, 2021, and a lot of murky water has flowed under the bridge since then but, going through my pragmatic chronology of events for this dissertation in hindsight, some noted improprieties and logical inconsistencies loom rather large. I may perhaps revisit this issue.

While waiting for an answer from the federal 5th Circuit we were doing some reading and of a particular interest was the October 11 2006, Hearing of the Texas Senate on Jurisprudence. The Texas State Senate Video Archive information is available to John Q. Public. The 7hr 31min Senate Committee on Jurisprudence where abundant testimony was given on the probate mob problem on October 11, 2006 can be observed here:

There are many suits, numerous victims and innumerable damages inflicted and all are the product of law having been replaced by judicial fiat and an association of non-productive predators having attained impunity⁵ by and through their association.

WE HOLD THESE TRUTHS TO BE SELF-EVIDENT

We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness.--That to secure these rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed, -- That whenever any Form of Government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the Right of the People to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new Government, laying its foundation on such principles and organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their Safety and Happiness.

Prudence, indeed, will dictate that Governments long established should not be changed for light and transient causes; and accordingly all experience hath shewn, that mankind are more disposed to suffer, while evils are sufferable, than to right themselves by abolishing the forms to which they are accustomed.

But when a long train of abuses and usurpation's, pursuing invariably the same Object, evinces a design to reduce them under absolute Despotism, it is their right, it is their duty, to throw off such Government, and to provide new Guards for their future security.

However, we find among us today a group of men bound by a compact of association that has declared its members above accountability to the same laws that govern others. By proclaiming an exclusive right to agency in the people's courts and their members immune from public accountability this association of men has taken over our judiciary, corrupted our institutions of government and declared themselves more equal than others.

⁵ Letters of Marque and Reprisal in a covert war on individual rights and freedom

By these means associations of Barristers from state to state have overthrown the safeguards long ago established to protect the peoples Safety and Happiness and replaced our systems of justice with their own self-protecting doctrines. By declaring a monopoly on agency in the people's institutions of public justice these non-productive "associations of barristers" have subjected the productive citizens to predatory schemes designed to deprive an entire society of the productive wealth of each and every generation.

As a direct result of this monopoly on access to justice the ordinary people have suffered a long train of abuses and usurpation's, all pursuing invariably the same object of despoiling the productive wealth of the working men and women of this nation for the enrichment of a select few.

By declaring their members immune from accountability this aristocracy of barristers have deprived the people of any meaningful right to petition for redress of grievance, they have deprived the people of due process, they have deprived the people of the right to liberty and to be secure in their persons, houses, papers, and effects, against unreasonable searches and seizures. This association of predators, having declared themselves above our laws, have continuously evinced a design to reduce the non-association members of the public trust to absolute despotism and even devour their own for overt opposition to their Aristocratic Plutocracy.

JANUARY 9, 2013 FEDERAL 5TH CIRCUIT COURT OF APPEAL

"The circuit court found the case was outside the scope of the probate exception under the first step of the inquiry because the trust was not property within the custody of the probate court. Because the assets in a living or inter vivos trust were not property of the estate at the time of decedent's death, having been transferred to the trust years before, the trust was not in the custody of the probate court and as such the probate exception was inapplicable to disputes concerning administration of the trust."

"The record also indicated that there would be no probate of the trust's assets upon the death of the surviving spouse. Finding no evidence that the trust was subject to the ongoing probate proceedings, the case fell outside the scope of the probate exception. The district court below erred in dismissing the case for lack of subject-matter jurisdiction.” This opinion is published: Curtis v Brunsting 704 F.3d 406 (Jan 9, 2013)

Thompson, Coe attorneys representing estate planning Defendant Candace Kunz-Freed and Vacek & Freed P.L.L.C., f/k/a The Vacek Law Firm

There are a number of reasons why I call this the beginning of the "Brunsting Frankensuits". The first reasons are the pour-over-wills. There are no estates.

WHAT IS A POUR-OVER?

⁶ Attorneys move around a lot. If the attorneys linked do not have current links, you can always look them up with the bar association.

In simple terms a trust is basically a container object, to wit a legal fiction created for the purpose of holding assets. There are two kinds, "inter vivos", which are private law contracts created for the living, and "testamentary", which are created by will or by operation of law at the death of someone of legal age, having the capacity to own property. When someone dies their property forms a testamentary trust, commonly referred to as the "decedent's estate".

If you die without a will and there is any "ARGUMENT" over rights in the property you leave behind, the assets vest according to the laws of "intestate succession". If you die with a Will and there is "ARGUMENT" over rights in property, the assets vest according to the Will, (in theory and according to law). Manifest reality often tells a different story, as shown by the case in point.

If you die without owning anything, there is nothing to form an estate around. In other words, if there is no property there is nothing to place into the container called the "decedent's estate". These attorneys will refer to the trust corpus as "the trust estate" and while that may be technically correct, that expression is used for the purpose of generating confusion and ignoring the distinction between the trust corpus and the probate estate. That is especially true where, as here, there is no estate to probate.

ARTIFICE: IGNORE DISTINCTIONS, THE LABEL GAME!

Rights in assets devised (gifted) to any recipient (devisee) by Will, vest immediately in the designated recipient (the devisee) at the death of the Testator (decedent with a will). The sole devisee of both Brunsting Wills is the living trust. The purpose for a pour-over-will is unified administration under the terms of the trust without having to duplicate those terms in the will. In other words, where there is a pour-over, no testamentary trust (estate) container is created as rights in assets immediately vest in the trustees for the trust. Thus, where there is a pour-over, THERE IS NO ESTATE TO ADMINISTER, there is only a trust.

Tex. Est. Code § 22.029 PROBATE MATTER; PROBATE PROCEEDINGS; PROCEEDING IN PROBATE; PROCEEDINGS FOR PROBATE. The terms "probate matter," "probate proceedings," "proceeding in probate," and "proceedings for probate" are synonymous and include a matter or proceeding relating to a decedent's estate.

"Estate" means a decedent's property (Tex. Est. Code § 22.012). "Personal property" (Tex. Est. Code § 22.028) includes an interest in: (1) goods; (2) money; (3) a chose in action; (4) an evidence of debt; and (5) a real chattel."

"the estate is an "indispensable party" to any proceeding in the probate court. The estate's presence is required for the determination of any proceeding that is ancillary or pendent to an estate." Goodman v. Summit at West Rim, Ltd., 952 S.W.2d 930, 933 (Tex. App. 1997) Smith's Inc. v. Sheffield No. 03-02-00109-CV (Tex. App. Jan. 30, 2003), Johnson v. Johnson, No. 04-19-00500-CV (Tex. App. Jan. 15, 2020)

Attorney Bobbie G. Bayless, knew or should have known that this malpractice claim was a survivors action that should have been properly brought in the name of Carl Henry Brunsting as the Decedent's Personal Representative, as a beneficiary of the trust affected or as a co-trustee for the trust but not as the executor of an estate that was never created. It may appear to be a meaningless distinction but, in the law, there are no meaningless distinctions and as we proceed, one will realize how big this little failure to distinguish becomes. This is a survival suit not an action brought by the trustee of a testamentary trust. Carl is a co-trustee for the sole devisee, a living trust, and also a beneficiary of the living trust and, as we will see, these distinctions turn on substantive definitions, not labels.

Either there was a pour-over or there is an estate. These concepts are mutually exclusive and you can have one or the other but not both. Once the wills were "admitted" unchallenged, the pour-over, that actually occurred simultaneous with the passing of each testator, was binding upon the whole world and no longer subject to direct or collateral attack.

Trusts are either created for the living (inter vivos) or at death (testamentary) and the labels we apply are simply descriptions used to define the specific nature of the container object and the particular law that governs the various kinds of legal fictions we are talking about.

Decedents estates in Texas are container objects defined and administered under the Texas Estates Code whereas, inter vivos trusts are container objects created by private contract, within the boundaries of public policy, as defined by Title IX of the Texas Property Code. Using labels such as "Estate of John Doe" or "Estate of Jane Doe" does not create a container object holding a decedents property. It is property itself that forms the container object called "estate".

I have personal knowledge that Attorney Bobbie G. Bayless knew that the Brunsting inter vivos trust, the object of her state court suits, was in the custody of a federal court when she filed her District Court Suit in the name of the Executor of an estate that does not exist. Moreover, Bayless fractured her malpractice claims with claims for:

“negligent misrepresentation, negligence per se, deceptive trade practices, conversion, fraud, commercial bribery, breaches of their fiduciary duties, as well as aiding and abetting, assisting and encouraging repeated breaches of fiduciary duty. Alternatively, a conspiracy existed between Defendants and the Current Trustees for that unlawful purpose.”

I have since formed the opinion that Attorney Bobbie G. Bayless, Modus Operandi is of the conflict engineering variety. Her fractured malpractice claims lead nowhere as they are mutually exclusive. Bayless M.O. appears to be the manufacture of "legal imbroglios" by scheme and artifice that include but are not limited to challenging wills by proxy. By the time we get a little further in our story you will share that personal knowledge and the opinion that flows from that knowledge.

ETYMOLOGY

Borrowed from Italian imbroglio (“tangle, entanglement, muddle”) (im-, alternative form of in- (“prefix forming verbs denoting derivation”) + broglio (“confusion; intrigue, fraud, rigging, stuffing”); see also imbrogliare (“to tangle”)), cognate with and probably from an earlier form of French embrouiller (“to embroil, muddle”) (em- (“em-”), a form of en- (“en-, prefix meaning ‘caused’”) + brouiller (“to confuse, mix up”)).

By manufacturing Legal Imbroglios I am referring to what historically was referred to as Barratry, Champerty and Maintenance. The ordinary meaning of Barratry is vexatious incitement to litigation and if you watch carefully we will see the psycho-emotional disorder identified by the American Psychiatric Association in the DSM5 under the clinical label of "Projection".

PSYCHOLOGICAL PROJECTION

Projection is the blaming of one's impulses, qualities and actions on others. Psychological projection is a defense mechanism in which the ego defends itself against unconscious impulses or qualities by denying their existence in themselves and attributing them to others. For example, a bully may project his or her own feelings of vulnerability onto the target, or a person who is confused may project feelings of confusion and inadequacy onto other people.

Let's take a quick look at the conflicts relationships. This chart continues to grow as the fiduciary relationships are defined and the conflicts identified.

Vacek had fiduciary obligations to Elmer and Nelva Brunsting. They breached the fiduciary duty of undivided loyalty when Freed formed a conflicting confidential relationship with Anita Brunsting and Amy Brunsting.

The Thompson Coe attorney's representation of Vacek & Freed aligns them with Mendel and Spielman and their clients and there was obvious collusion between the Thompson Coe attorneys and Bayless, as there is no other way to explain filing fractured malpractice claims against the bait and switch grifters in the District Court and tort claims against all the family trust beneficiaries in the probate court.

Both actions were designed to fail and it should also be noted here that the same Thompson Coe attorney's represented probate court associate judge Clarinda Comstock in Johnson v Dixel. They never mention that conflict and these are all violations of the Disciplinary Rules of Professional Conduct.

CLOSING THE ESTATE

On April 4, 2013 Attorney Bobbie G. Bayless submitted the Inventory, Appraisal and List of Claims for both Elmer and Nelva's "estate". Orders Approving the Inventories [412248]-[412249], and Drop Orders [412248]-[412249] were issued on April 5, 2013 acknowledging the completion of the pour-over procedure and thus, closing the "Independent Administration" of the pour-over.

SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF TEXAS NO. 4:12-CV-592

On return to the Southern District of Texas, Plaintiff Candace Curtis renewed her previous application for preliminary injunction. Hearing was had April 9, 2013 and injunction issued.

On April 10, 2013 Defendants' Counsel, George Vie III, filed notice of a lawsuit brought in the state probate court by Bobbie G. Bayless, attorney for Carl Brunsting, in which Carl names all of his sisters defendants, including federal Plaintiff Candace Curtis. This is a will challenge by proxy, a major artifice of the probate mob as will be demonstrated when we examine each of the participants individual histories.

Read a Brunsting Will. What does it say?

"I give, devise and bequeath all of my property and estate, real, personal or mixed, wherever situated, to my revocable living trust"

"I direct that no action be required in the county or probate court in relation to the settlement of my estate other than the probate and recording of my Will and the return of an inventory, appraisalment and list of claims as required by law."

What part of this did Attorney Bobby G. Bayless not understand when she filed her non-probate related tort claims, under the Texas Civil Practices and Remedies Code, in a probate court AFTER the recording of the Pour-Over-Will, and AFTER the return of an "inventory, appraisalment and list of claims" had been approved and the docket closed?

Carl had no standing to bring any further action in the probate court as Independent Executor and no individual standing to file anything in the probate court without a pending probate as will be shown.

WHAT VALID MOTIVE COULD ATTORNEY BOBBIE G. BAYLESS HAVE FOR FILING TWO SEPARATE SUITS IN TWO DIFFERENT COURTS WITH A PRIOR SUIT PENDING IN THE FEDERAL COURT WHEN THERE CAN BE ONLY ONE NUCLEUS OF OPERATIVE FACTS COMMON TO ALL THREE ACTIONS?

“Plaintiff brings this cause of action pursuant to Chapters 37 of the Texas Civil Practice and Remedies Code and Chapter 115 of the Texas Property Code.”

"Venue in this cause is in Harris County, Texas, pursuant to Tex. Civ. Prac. & Rem. Code §15.002(a)(1) because all, or substantially all, of the acts giving rise to Plaintiffs claims occurred in Harris County, Texas. Bayless “non-probate claims” include Breach of Fiduciary Duty, Failure to Account, Conversion, Negligence, Tortious Interference with Inheritance, Constructive Trust, Civil Conspiracy, Fraudulent Concealment and requests for disclosures and injunction.

Bayless fails to include in her "venue" statement that none of these tort claims invoke the jurisdiction of a statutory probate court or that the mandatory venue provisions of Tex. Civ. Prac. & Rem. Code Ann. §15.017 places original and exclusive jurisdiction over these tort claims in the District Court, as Bayless (the author of the probate charade) proved in [*In re Hannah, 431 S.W.3d 801, 807-08 \(Tex. APRIL 19, 2013 SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF TEXAS NO. 4:12-CV-592

Meanwhile, back in the Southern District of Texas Honorable United States District Judge Kenneth Hoyt issued Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law after hearing and Memorandum of Preliminary Injunction.⁷

The Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law are rather telling. Judge Hoyt found that Amy and Anita claimed to be trustees and owed fiduciary duties to Curtis, that Anita had failed to establish books and records of accounts even though more than two years had passed since her appointment and found inconsistencies with the copies of instruments Anita submitted as “the trust”.

The Southern District Court thereafter issued an order appointing a Special Master to perform a limited accounting of trust assets and transactions for the period in which Anita claims to have been trustee, December 21, 2010. The Report of Special Master⁸ was filed August 8, 2013 and was followed by a September 3, 2013 HEARING⁹

The Report of Special Master showed Anita had secretly co-mingled and self-dealt while failing to keep accurate books and records of accounts. Like the train of defective instruments generated in the wake of every “Hurrah”, these facts were not divulged at their inception. That is a breach of the affirmative duty of full and complete disclosure. These facts, and the myriad of disturbing instruments, were only revealed under the force of judicial process, brought to bear after Nelva’s death on November 11, 2011.

It is clear to see from the Report of Special Master,¹⁰ and the HEARING¹¹ that followed, that Anita, as sole trustee de facto, had failed to establish books and records of accounts; had made substantial, unreported distributions to herself, Amy and Carole and had even paid $40,000 in personal credit card obligations directly out of the trust checking account. When forced to report and account, she thought to excuse her unreported self-dealing transactions as “trustee compensation” and “gifts”. I won’t bother to grind this creature’s nose in her own moral depravity

⁷ I believe that it is this preliminary injunction that has prevented the “players” from looting the trust into extinction under the pretext of fees.

AUGUST 15, 2013 HANNAH V HATCHER

August 15, 2013 Bayless filed Julie Hannah v David Lee Hatcher No. 201348071-7 in Harris County District Court 125 claiming tortious interference with inheritance expectancy, slander, and conspiracy. This is only five months after filing tort claims in "Estate of Nelva Brunsting" in Harris County Probate Court No. 4, Cause No. 41229-401.

As in Hannah, Attorney Bobbie G. Bayless filed her "Brunsting Trust" action in Harris County Probate Court No. 4¹³ under Chapter 37 Texas Civil Practice and Remedies Code and Chapter 115 of the Property Code, knowing the trustees were under the jurisdiction of the Southern District of Texas; that there was no estate pending administration and; that actions ancillary to an estate administration not only require an estate to be ancillary to but, must be brought under one of the enabling statutes: (Tex. Est. Code Ann. §§ 21.006, 32.001(a), 33.002, 33.052, 33.101) and not the Texas Civil Practices and Remedies Code. See [Mortensen v. YOU'RE NOT IN KANSAS ANY MORE DOROTHY
SEARCH WARRANT SERVED OCTOBER 1ST, 2013

I was swept off the playing table as part of a covert operation that included coma and chemically enhanced interrogation while a search warrant signed by a petty thief¹⁹ was executed on my home by the Napa County Special Investigation Gestapo. The return on that warrant²⁰ revealed there was no probable cause, nothing was seized and no one was arrested. Not only did they put me in a coma and flat line me several times, it happened when Candy Curtis had to appear in the federal court in Houston without being able to be briefed and, in result, she was ordered to retain the assistance of counsel.

I had a great deal of difficulty regaining my cognitive functioning after the drug saturation at John Muir Concord (followed by open heart surgery in Napa), but in order to avoid having Candy's case dismissed for failure to comply with the Court's order under federal Rule of Civil Procedure 41(a), I felt compelled to look for an attorney in Houston. The first thing I noted was an air of reluctance from many seemingly reputable or well established law firms I spoke with.

1. Aiding and abetting trust busting
 - a. Removed trust suit from an honorable court to the reprobate cabal using a “bundle of unopposed motions” and an “Unopposed Motion to Remand” to Harris County Probate Court No. 4.
 - b. Once the prize was captured and brought before the admiralty sitting in rem (a.k.a. probate court) Ostrom filed a “Motion to enter a transfer order”.

Let’s get the facts straight. “Remand” means to return. It is a post removal procedure. Transfer on the other hand is from one court to another court of the same species like probate to probate or district to district but not from a federal court to a state court. OSTROMS ACTS WERE FRAUDULENT FROM START TO FINISH.

The Remand procedures, 28 U.S.C. § 1367(c) or § 1447, and the Transfer Procedure, 28 U.S.C. § 1407, are not synonymous. In fact, they are not even similar. The question is not whether you can make a word mean so many different things; “the question is who will be the master?”

REPROBATE THEATER

Ostrom’s first official act was to amend plaintiff Candace Curtis complaint to add Carl Brunsting as an INVOLUNTARY PLAINTIFF, claiming to pollute diversity jurisdiction to facilitate a remand to Harris County Probate Court No. 4.

Ostrom never even bothered to file an appearance in the probate court but pretended to amend the federal complaint filing Candace Curtis alleged Second Amended Complaint as “Estate of Nelva Brunsting” and not “Candace Louise Curtis vs. Anita and Amy Brunsting and Does 1-100”, as that lawsuit is properly styled. Ostrom also plead that a very lucid Nelva Brunsting lacked competence and moved for a distribution from the trust as if his client, a very competent and self-sufficient Candace Curtis, were a special needs dependent that had always been reliant on upon her parents for support. Ostrom consulted with his client only once and the rest he did on his own initiative.

Candace Louise Curtis vs. Anita and Amy Brunsting and Does 1-100 is NOT the estate of Nelva Brunsting and cannot be converted into a “Probate Matter”. Let’s regress a moment to review the time line.

ATTORNEY BOBBIE G. BAYLESS, IN RE HANNAH

FEBRUARY 11, 2014

Attorney Bobbie G. Bayless filed a Petition for Writ of Mandamus in the 14th District Court of Appeals, pursuant to Section 15.0642 of the Texas Civil Practice and Remedies Code, presenting as her sole issue whether the trial court violated the mandatory venue provision in Section 15.017 of the Civil Practice and Remedies Code by transferring Relator’s suit to the County Court at Law of Aransas County, arguing that tortuous interference with inheritance, slander, and conspiracy were general tort claims and not probate matters or matters relating to a probate proceeding because they were claims brought under the Texas Civil Practice and Remedies Code seeking damages from the defendants individually and not claims brought under the Texas Estates Code seeking remedy from the assets belonging to a decedents estate. If this is true in Hannah v Hatcher, it is also true in “estate of Nelva Brunsting”.

Bayless argument and sent Julie Hannah back to Harris County’s 125th Judicial District Court. In re Hannah, 431 S.W.3d 801, 807-08 (Tex. App.—Houston [14th Dist.] 2014, orig. proceeding) (citing TEX. EST. CODE ANN. §§ 21.006, 32.001(a), 33.002, 33.052, 33.101).

Bobbie G. Bayless Petition for Writ of Mandamus and the Texas 14th District Court of Appeals agreement In re Hannah, 431 S.W.3d 801, 807-08, prove the lawsuit Attorney Bobbie G. Bayless filed in Harris County Probate Court No. 4 in Estate of Nelva Brunsting Case no. 412249-401 was a pour-over-will challenge in a case in which there was no estate for her client to represent. None-the-less, Bayless continued to take Carl and Drina Brunsting’s money as if they did have a lawsuit pending in a state court. They do not and the complete absence of a determination on any substantive issue in any state court is just cumulative evidence.

I have already told more than I knew about probate law in Texas while this theft charade was being played by the probate mafia thugs.

NO. 412249-402

The Docket shows that the -402 matter was initiated on February 9, 2015 with a Notice of filing of Plaintiff Candace Louise Curtis' Original Petition and Notice of filing of Injunction and Report of Special Master. Plaintiff's Original Petition reveals a filing date of February 27, 2012 in the United States District Court for the Southern District of Texas, Houston Division. However, the 412249-402 Docket fails to show how the matter arrived in the probate court.

On March 16, 2015, there is an Order that all pleadings filed under or assigned to Cause Number 412249-402 be moved into Cause Number 412249-401. The next entry in the -402 docket is dated October 8, 2018 when Plaintiff Curtis filed a Plea in Abatement and the final entry is a Notice of Appearance by Attorney Candice Schwager for Candace Louise Curtis filed November 19, 2019.

On review of the various docket records it comes to the Court's attention that a "Motion to Enter Transfer Order" was filed in 412249-401 on June 5, 2015 pursuant to Texas Estates Code Sections 32.005, 32.006 and 32.007. Attached as an exhibit to the motion is an Order of the United States District Court for the Southern District of Texas, Houston Division, granting Plaintiff's "Motion to Remand" signed on the 15th day of May 2014.

The core matter, No. 412249, closed on April 5, 2013. The next entry is a June 6, 2014 Order granting Plaintiff's motion to remand but the 412249-402 docket record was not opened until eight months later, February 9, 2015, which was four months before the "Motion to Enter Transfer Order" was filed in 412249-401. The March 9, 2015 "Agreed Order to Consolidate Cases" was filed three months before the motion to enter a transfer order was filed and only one month after the docket was opened.

The record reveals no evidence of a removal and, thus, the notion of a remand is improper on its face. The record also does not support the theory of a transfer from any other probate court. Moreover, this Agreed Order to Consolidate was filed after the Independent executor resigned and does not appear to follow any of the established rules governing the consolidation of cases. None of the pleadings, other than the -404 action, use stacked title pages as prescribed by the local rules, but simply refer to all of the actions as "Estate of Nelva Brunsting" 412249-401.

807-08 prove that the lawsuit Attorney Bobbie G. None-the-less, Bayless continues to take Carl and Drina Brunsting's money as if they did have a lawsuit pending in a state court. They do not and the complete absence of a determination on any substantive issue in any state court is just cumulative evidence.

APRIL 8, 2015

PBT Jason Ostrom is officially no longer counsel of record for Candace Curtis in Probate Court 4. Candy is not yet aware that Ostrom never filed an appearance in Probate Court 4. The fact that her federal court lawsuit was not to be found in the probate court and that she was only allowed to file in -401 was very disabling because -402, her alleged case file, had been closed by agreement between the mock probate participants and no legitimate proceedings were even possible.

MAY 18, 2015

Bayless moved to dismiss her Julie Hannah suit with prejudice. Thus, after winning her petition for mandamus Bayless returned to Harris County's 125th Judicial District Court and immediately filed a non-suit dismissing Hannah's claims. The explanation for that is easy. Big win for Bayle$$; big loss for Hannah.

If everything Bayless claimed was true, the decedents will was tainted. However, Bayless did not participate in the probate proceedings and did not mount a direct will challenge in the County Court at Law of Aransas County where the Will was held valid. As the validity of the will was res judicata, Bayless had no choice but to file a non-suit to Hannah's tort claims because they were nothing but a will challenge by proxy. Challenging the will by proxy is the same artifice Bayless used when she filed tort claims in Harris County Probate Court No. 4 under the Texas Civil Practices and Remedies Code, after the recording of the will, after the approval of an inventory and the closing of the docket and in direct violation of the express directives in Wills that had already been held valid.

LET'S REVISIT THE BRUNSTING WILLS

JUNE 26, 2015

I have already explained that you cannot alter, amend or change an irrevocable trust by the abuse of language and the disregard for fundamental distinctions in definitions of the terms we use to define the legal theories we are talking about. The most heinous part of this passive aggressive to contest scheme is corruption of the blood, which can only serve to enlarge the villain beneficiaries share, and that is a violation of the In Terrorem Clause.

JULY 14, 2015 BAYLESS MOTION TO TRANSFER³⁰

Fresh from her Mandamus win in Hannah, proving none of her tort claims invoke the jurisdiction of a probate court, Bayless filed a Motion to Transfer her Vacek & Freed case from Harris County's 125th Judicial District Court to Probate Court No. 4. That appeared to make sense to the uninitiated, whereas filing two halves of the same action in different state courts did not. However, digging a little deeper we see that there is no plaintiff in Bayless malpractice suit against the Vacek & Freed estate planning grifters in Harris County's 125th Judicial District Court.

Another DCO wasn't issued until July 2021 and no successor independent executor appointment or ruling had been issued in all that time.

ENTER GREGORY LESTER

July 21, 2015 HEARING: the parties agreed to appointment of Greg Lester as Temporary Administrator, recommended by Judge Butts, for the purpose of evaluating the claims. Once having learned probate law in Texas and reading the local rules you find that the clerk is required to maintain a "claims docket" with a list of he claims, when due, date that interest begins or began to accrue and some other academic input. Judge Christine Butts is Board Certified in estate planning and probate law and she knew there were no decedent's estates and that there were no in rem "claims" when she participated in this sham appointment.

On July 20, 2015 Bayless filed Drina's Motion for Protective Order PBT-2015-235874. This eliminated the "Agreed Docket Control Order"³¹ signed by judge Butts and all the attorneys immediately after the resignation of the diminished capacity "independent executor".

Attorney Jason Ostrom, allegedly representing Candace Curtis, signed the conversion agreement and the agreed DCO without even filing an appearance in the probate court.

On July 22, 2015 while Curtis was inflight home to California the August 3, 2015 hearing on dispositive motions were removed from calendar without notice to or consent from Plaintiff Curtis. Defendants removed their no-evidence motion for partial summary judgment and Curtis Answer, Motion and Demand to Produce Evidence (Tex. Ev. Cd. §§1002, 1003) from Calendar and the August 3, 2015 summary Judgment hearings became a hearing on Drina Brunsting's application for a protective order regarding illegal wiretap recordings that had been disseminated by certified mail in July 2015.

These recordings were illegally obtained and one has to wonder under what authority a probate court can hear a motion to suppress illegally obtained wiretap recordings. Here's the Texas Estates Code maybe you can find the legislative delegation of authority for a statutory probate court to hear a motion involving wiretap recordings.

There was a September 10, 2015 hearing on Greg Lester's Motion to retain Jill Young as Attorney Gregory Lester's' attorney (NO Transcript). Jill Willard-

Young, was one of the cut and paste defendants. Her answer included the Rooker-Feldman Schnooker calling the RICO plaintiff's "Disgruntled litigants seeking vengeance for being on the losing end of fully litigated state court determinations". This piece of bar club card carrying filth was also the first to use the expression "vexatious" in her diatribe. She is also the poster girl that inspired the expression "Filthy Lucre Soup Line whore".

On January 14, 2016 Temporary Administrator Greg Lester filed a fraudulent report with the court talking about the Brunsting trust Controversy, never once mentioning the “Will”, Inventory, Claims, or Estates Codes and never addresses the question of probate jurisdiction. (He refers to the Report of Special master but never identifies the federal case it came from.

On January 25, 2016 Plaintiff Curtis filed a Motion for Summary Judgement and emailed a request for setting to judge Comstock asking to have all the dispositive motions reset for hearing.

A Hearing was set for March 9, 2016, (called “Status Conference”) on the motion to reset Dispositive Motions and for hearing on Curtis application to snatch the District Court Case. (Zandra Foley represents the Vacek & Freed Defendants in the Harris County District Court while also representing Clarinda Comstock in the federal court in the Calkins suit).

March 9, 2016 was an express display of the collusion, conspiracy and denial of both substantive and procedural due process and that was all we needed to see. (See Transcript)

Probate court refused to set hearings on dispositive motions and called the setting conference a “Status Conference” which is clearly the code word for an “Honest Services Scheme” designed to avoid substantive resolution. We see this in the Willie Jo Mills Transcripts and the chronological history of the refusal to set due process hearings.

FEDERAL CIVIL RICO

On July 5, 2016 Plaintiff’s Curtis and Munson filed a Racketeer Influenced Corrupt Organization Complaint against 16 criminal defendants.

This list includes all 11 attorneys, the two Probate Court Judges, a Court reporter, and would be familial thieves Anita Brunsting and Amy Brunsting and Does 1-100. Each of the named Defendants filed Motions to Dismiss and they all claimed the RICO claims arose from a “Probate Case”, “Probate Matter”, or “Probate Proceeding”. In other words, they all lied.

There is no probate and these claims arise in the context of the color of law hijacking of a family trust that has been held hostage for ransom in a pretended probate proceeding for three years (that has now turned into more than eight years) without a single “probate claim” and without a single substantive ruling on any dispositive issues, beginning with which trust instruments are valid and controlling. How can this posing and posturing be called litigation?

Where did I first see the expression probate mafia? I read it in a 2002 treatise while researching the probate exception for Candy’s first 5th Circuit appeal.

2002-02-21 FIGHTING THE PROBATE MAFIA

Where did I learn about what the probate mafia is? Harris County Probate Court No. 4 and all the cases filed in federal court seeking remedy that were treated exactly the same. In fact, if you ready the brief’s you discover that some defendants didn’t even bother to correct the name of the judge or the court in their copy and paste from earlier cases in which they were also defendants.

PETTY THIEF IN A BLACK ROBE

2017-07-17 Napa Superior Court Judge Michael Williams stepping down after exposure for petty theft. This is the Napa County Superior Court Judge that issued a warrant to search my home, without cause, while I was being subjected to pharmacologically assisted interrogation and torture at John Muir Medical Center in Concord California. The return on that warrant demonstrates the complete absence of evidence to justify the fishing raid on my home (and my mind) by armed paramilitary predators in the employ of the local municipal corporation. This was not the first “unwarranted” assault on my home nor the last. The criminal thugs have been here with and without warrant on far too many occasions and never once found an actual excuse for their threat to the lives and safety of the people in this household.

The Lester “Report” fails to mentions the wills, fails to identify the trust as the sole devisee, fails to mention any assets that would form the container object called the decedents estate and fails to identify a single claim against the non-existent estate but runs straight to the QBD/TPA extortion document, created after the trust became irrevocable, and raising the No-Contest clause containing the corruption of blood provisions. That would be one of the following:

2019-05-15 A. Brunstings Mtn. for Sanctions

February 27, 2019 marks the seventh anniversary of the filing of Curtis v Brunsting in the Southern District of Texas.

Nothing happened in the probate forum during all of the RICO proceedings but as soon as the appeals court affirmed the dismissal, the filthy lucre soup line acolytes returned to their extortion and obstruction extravaganza in the reprobate theater with renewed enthusiasm.

From the June 2018 decision onward the probate mafia thugs waved the RICO flag in the air as if proof that the pro se was frivolous and nonsensical and this is where they began brandishing the word “vexatious” as cornerstone of their sham probate theater. (the term first arose in Jill Willard-Young’s motion to dismiss the RICO case 4:16-cv-1969, a cut and paste from a prior suit alleging “disgruntled litigants seeking vengeance for being on the losing end of fully litigated state court determinations – there are none)

Passive Aggressive: Anita failed to perform the mandatory duties of a trustee under the terms of any trust and after ignoring all obligations for more than eight years the completely untrustworthy Co-Defendant Co-Trustee's claim the victims of their theft charade violated a no-contest clause by bringing suit just to get an accounting and disclosures when the beneficiary was forced to file suit just to get an over-due accounting and affirmative fiduciary disclosures.

After eight years of thumbing their nose at any and all fiduciary obligations and having their mercenary attorneys threaten their co-beneficiary victims, and after incurring over $280,000 in excess taxes liabilities as a direct result of refusing to distribute the income to the mandatory income beneficiaries, sleazy attorneys Stephen Mendel and Neal Spielman have the audacity to file "original counter claims" alleging the beneficiaries that had to file suit to enforce their rights against rogues seeking to steal their property, had violated a no contest provision by bringing a lawsuit to compel fiduciary performance.

"a number of different terms, conditions and instructions to be implemented and followed by the trustees and beneficiaries. Included among these terms, conditions and instructions were rules intended for the "protection of beneficial interests", including without limitation rules dictating that the Founders' instructions were not to be contested."

Amy and Anita further claim that:

"Carl and Curtis have taken actions" that trigger the forfeiture provisions, and that "Carl and Curtis' actions" in triggering the forfeiture provisions were without just cause and were not in good faith and that "By their actions", Carl and Curtis have forfeited their interests in the trust.

This is the same vague general language used throughout their dialog. As one can see in the blabber, the "original counter claims" fail to define, identify or state what the "number of different terms, conditions and instructions" are and fails to specifically define, identify or state what "actions taken" invoke what "in Terrorem provisions" in what instruments and presupposes illegal changes made to an irrevocable trust using questionably authentic instruments and otherwise void instruments are valid.

In a theater where no law will be allowed to interfere with the attorney looting of family generational asset transfers this may well be the manifest reality. Of course, the In Terrorem clause they are talking about includes corruption of blood, a concept long advertised as condemned by our law. In other words, it is an artifice, designed to steal, drafted after changes could no longer be made that is now being used in effort to intimidate the victims into submitting to the filthy lucre ransom demands. It's actually worse than that. They want the victims to enter into a settlement agreement. If the beneficiaries of a living trust agreement (A/B trust contract of indenture) cannot enforce the trust contract, what is to make them believe they can enforce a settlement contract? Didn't I already say DUH?

Oh yea, the best part is that the proposed "settlement agreement" has no provision for the bait and switch Estate Planning Grifters or the phony probate theater actors to pay damages but has all of the attorney fees paid from trust assets in violation of the in Terrorem clause in the 2005 Restatement. [Article 11 page 11-1] (pdf page 57)

THERE IS NO STATUTORY PROBATE COURT JURISDICTION

An estate is a container object. An estate is a legal fiction created to hold a decedents property. An estate (container object) can only be created where there is property (stuff) for the container object to contain. The only property shown on the inventory is a used car with a Blue book value less than $1000 and that poured-over into the trust when the inventory was approved, and the probate closed. That was five days before Bayless filed her non-probate related tort claims in the wrong court.

2019-11-19 Bill of Review

The Privity and Texas Attorney Immunity Doctrines are regularly used as shields for the criminal racketeering alleged in the RICO complaint. When coupled with the probate exception and Rooker-Feldman, the suckers don't stand a chance.

DECEMBER 16, 2019

Hawes v Peden: (Hawes v. Peden, No. 06-19-00053-CV \(Tex. App. Dec. 16, 2019\) citing In re Hannah. [6 page opinion]

Inmate Roger Hawes filed suit in the district court seeking relief that would be paid from the estate of his recently deceased attorney. The court held the relief sought, if awarded, would come from the decedent's estate and was thus a matter related to a pending probate proceeding, over which the statutory probate court had exclusive jurisdiction. (see Mortensen v. Villegas [12 pages] citing In re Hannah for an equal and opposite view)

Mortensen filed tort claims in the probate court after the probate had closed. Mortensen's claims were against the defendant's individually and the relief sought, if awarded, would come from the defendants individually and not from a decedent's estate, placing exclusive jurisdiction in the district court.

What I am showing is that the author of the Brunsting probate court charade, was also the author of the winning Petition for Writ of Mandamus in Hannah and that these three cases clearly show, without question or confusion, that the claims attorney Bobbie G. Bayless filed in Harris County Probate Court No. 4, under the Texas Civil Practices and Remedies Code, April 9, 2013, were filed in a court with no jurisdiction.

412,249 ESTATE OF NELVA BRUNSTING, HARRIS COUNTY PROBATE COURT NO. 4

This probate action was closed on April 5, 2013 and never reopened. There are no pending claims related to the settlement, partition, or distribution of this estate and all limitations periods for reopening the closed estate have long since expired.

Let's look at the nature of the claims and the relief sought in Bayless Brunsting Probate Frankensuit:

412,249-401 PLAINTIFF CARL BRUNSTING INDIVIDUALLY AND AS INDEPENDENT EXECUTOR

- 1) Construction of Trust and Suit for Declaratory Judgement,
- 2) Demand for Trust Accounting,
- 3) Breach of Fiduciary Duties,
- 4) Conversion,

- 5) Negligence,
- 6) Tortious Interference with Inheritance,
- 7) Constructive Trust,
- 8) Civil Conspiracy,
- 9) Fraudulent Concealment
- 10) Prejudgment Interest
- 11) Attorney's Fees pursuant to Chapters 37 of the Texas Civil Practice and Remedies Code and Chapter 115 of the Texas Property Code.

There are no claims related to the settlement, partition, or distribution of a decedent's estate. Damages, if awarded, would be satisfied from defendant's individual assets and distribution of living trust assets rather than from estate property and thus, these claims are not related to any probate proceeding.

In re Hannah, 431 S.W.3d 801, 809-810 (Tex. App.— Houston [14th Dist.] 2014, orig. proceeding)

(because suit sought damages which would be satisfied from defendant's individual assets rather than from estate property, claims were not related to probate proceeding); see Narvaez, 564 S.W.3d at 56

(holding that nature of claims and relief sought are to be examined when determining probate court jurisdiction), Hawes v. Peden, No. 06-19-00053-CV (Tex. App. Dec. 16, 2019), Mortensen v. Villegas, No. 08-19-00080-CV (Tex. App. Feb. 1, 2021)

412,249-401 DEFENDANTS ANITA AND AMY BRUNSTING'S ORIGINAL COUNTER CLAIMS

Defendants' counter claims are of three types (1) In Terrorem (2) Bad Faith and (3) entitlement to fees and costs.

- 14) One or more of the motions, responses, and/or replies filed by Carl trigger forfeiture provisions;
- 15) One or more of the motions, responses, and/or replies filed by Curtis trigger the Forfeiture provisions;

- 16) Carl did not have just cause to bring the action, and it was not brought in good faith;
- 17) Curtis did not have just cause to bring the action, and it was not brought in good faith;
- 18) Carl has forfeited his interest, and thus his interest passes as if he has predeceased the Founders;
- 19) Curtis has forfeited her interest, and thus her interest passes as if she has predeceased the Founders;
- 20) If Carl has not forfeited his interest via asserting any of the identified claims, and is or becomes entitled to receive any interest in the Founders' estate, then Amy's and Anita's expenses in defending against Carl's claims are to be charged against his interest dollar for-dollar;
- 21) If Curtis has not forfeited her interest via asserting any of the identified claims, and is or becomes entitled to receive any interest in the Founders' estate, then Amy's and Anita's expenses in defending against Curtis' claims are to be charged against her interest dollar-for-dollar;
- 22) All expenses incurred by Amy and Anita to legally defend against or otherwise resist the contest or attack by Carl and/or Curtis are to be paid from the Trust as expenses of administration.

Not only are these claims vague and overly broad, but Defendants “Original Counter Claims”, filed November 4, 2019, are compulsory counter claims that Defendant’s waived under Texas Rule of Civil Procedure § 97(a) when they were not included in Defendants original answers. None of these claims seek damages from a decedent’s estate. Damages, if awarded, would be satisfied from redistribution of living trust assets, rather than from estate property and thus, these claims are not related to any probate proceeding.

Moreover, they violate the in Terrorem clause in the 2005 Restatement. [Article 11 page 11-1] (pdf page 57). Anita caused this litigation by failing to provide a mandatory accounting and now seeks to use the corruption of blood and in Terrorem clauses in a trust challenging instrument to enlarge her share, which is exactly an action prohibited by the no-contest clause. Do you see clinical projection in any of this? Do you see pathologically twisted mindsets in any of this predatory behavior?

February 27, 2020 marks the eighth anniversary of the filing of Curtis v Brunsting in the Southern District of Texas and almost six years since Curtis fired sleaze bag Ostrom. Not one dispositive motion has been ruled upon in that theater in all this time.

2020-07-01 Instruction letter to passive trustees see the [Statute of Uses of 1535] (Texas Property Code § 112.032). A passive trust collapses because both legal and equitable titles merge in the cestui que (a.k.a. beneficiary). The alleged co-trustees of a passive trust have no authority but to distribute the assets to, or as directed, by the beneficiary. Anita and Amy Brunsting and their filthy lucre mercenaries have no standing to make any counter offers. Oh, but let's not burden ourselves with the law.

MARCH 5, 2021 EXTRACTION PROPOSAL

Alleged co-trustee Anita Brunsting provides a proposed settlement accounting under the auspice of a Texas Evidence Code § 408, thinking to make their extortion demand “confidential”. There is no ongoing litigation and the demand for attorney fees, not authorized by statute or contract, is extortion, which falls under the fraud/crime exception to the notion of confidentiality. This is not an offer to settle. It is a ransom demand! Settling the trust does not settle the damages.

MARCH 29, 2021 CO-TRUSTEES’ COUNTER OFFER PROPOSAL

On March 29, 2021 the Defendants attorneys sent an alleged Counter Offer Proposal in which they fail to claim confidentiality and in which they demand $537,000 in attorney fees, to be paid by the bait and switch estate planning attorney victims, from the beneficiaries’ shares of the family money cow trust. This so-called counter-offer is a direct challenge to the spend thrift provisions in the 2005 restatement.

Vacek advertised his products as “asset protection” and claimed his products and services would protect you from “people who want to take what you have”. Vacek also gave specific assurances that his products and service would avoid probate and guardianship.

Why did Vacek associate Candace Kunz-Freed have Vacek’s client, Nelva Brunsting, subjected to a competency evaluation if not to have her declared incompetent so the predators could loot the family trust using the Guardianship protection racket?

Why have the cestui que’ of the Brunsting family trust had their property held hostage in Harris County Probate Court No. 4, for more than eight years without a single dispositive issue being ruled upon?

If this is not an estate planning attorney bait and switch fed money cow hostage / ransom scheme, what is it?

JUNE 21, 2021 OPINION OF THE 5TH CIRCUIT

In the Opinion of the 5th Circuit in 20-20566 the circuit court ruled that Curtis amended complaint, denied for failure to include a certificate of conference, added Carl thus polluting diversity, and that the district court should have dismissed for want of jurisdiction. What the Circuit court fails to mention is that the amended complaint was brought under federal question and not diversity. Don't tell me that was an inadvertent oversight and not deliberate political positioning.

Thus, by act or omission the federal courts have aided and abetted the probate mafia charade and shown they are flaccid against state actors in respecting their own unanimous opinion. Thus, this living trust, the sole devisee of the settlors wills, containing only non-probate assets has been held hostage for ransom in a probate court with no pending probate.

Returning to the Probate Charade Attorney Stephen Mendel insists on setting a trial date and putting a docket control order in place. Our response was to file a request for submission of the Bill of Review challenging jurisdiction.

On July 4, 2021 Attorney Bayless files her reply to the bill.

Our answer

If it's not RICO and it's not probate litigation what is it? Three hundred years go the difference between a profiteer and a pirate was the fact that one predator, the profiteer, was licensed with "Letters of Marque" while the pirate predator was not licensed to seize any prize at all. In todays United States of America, Letters of Marque are issued by the Barristers Associations and the members call themselves lawyers when in fact they are not lawyers but attorners that also call themselves “attorneys”.

DEFINITION OF Attorn

: to agree to be tenant to a new owner or landlord of the same property

Attornment, in English real property law, is the acknowledgment of a new lord by the tenant on the alienation of land. Under the feudal system, the relations of landlord and tenant were to a certain extent reciprocal. So it was considered unreasonable to the tenant to subject him to a new lord without his own approval, and it thus came about that alienation could not take place without the consent of the tenant. Attornment was also extended to all cases of lessees for life or for years. The necessity for attornment was abolished by an act of 1705.

A district court cannot exercise supplemental jurisdiction "over claims by plaintiffs against persons made parties under Rule 14, 19, 20, or 24 . . . when exercising supplemental jurisdiction over such claims would be inconsistent with the jurisdictional requirements of" 28 U.S. § 1332," the statutory grant of diversity jurisdiction. 28 U.S.C. § 1367\(b\). Davis is not a "plaintiff" under § 1367\(b\) because "'plaintiff' in § 1367(b) refers to the original plaintiff in the action—not to a defendant that happens also to be a counter-plaintiff, cross-plaintiff, or third-party plaintiff." State Nat'l Ins. Co. v. Yates, 391 F.3d 577, 579-80 (5th Cir. 2004). Because United Property has alleged complete diversity of the parties' citizenship and over $75,000 in controversy, the court has subject-matter jurisdiction under § 1332. *United Prop. & Cas. Ins. As the Defendant's attorneys make clear, the morally bankrupt probate mafia acolytes refuse to recognize fundamental distinctions. Look at the defendant's attorney comment that Remand and Transfer are generally synonymous and arrive at the same destination regardless of how they are used to construct a legal proposition. Case 4:12-cv-00592 Document 131 Filed on 08/13/20 in TXSD Page 17 of 25, [ROA.20-20566.2774¶3(a)] This refusal to recognize the boundaries of order is quite troubling.

Both state court lawsuits authored by Attorney Bobbie G. Bayless and the the law firm of Bayless and Stokes, were fatally flawed from inception. In short, because the wills pour-over, there is no estate to represent and Carl had nothing to execute under the wills when these claims were filed. Further, Carl, as an individual beneficiary of a living trust, had no individual standing to bring exclusively living trust related claims in a probate court, as ancillary to an already closed and completed pour-over.
