The Most honest act of Estate Planning Bait and Switch Grifter Candace Kunz-Freed was when she admitted at her deposition that she couldn't pass the state Board Certification exam for estate planning and probate if she tried. [Deposition Page 141 pdf page 36]. She none-the-less gave her completely incompetent and unqualified opinion on legal questions and she lied.

Originally born in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, Neal moved to Sugar Land, Texas at the age of 12. A member of the first full four year graduating class of William P. Clements High School, Neal established many friendships that continue to this day, showing him the importance of trust and loyalty. Neal has been a member of the workforce for as long as he can remember. As a store clerk, pizza cook, lifeguard, camp counselor, waiter and bartender, Neal learned invaluable lessons about commitment, responsibility and hard work. These lessons form the building blocks of his approach to the practice of law. With dedication and determination, Neal has garnered a wide variety of legal experience in state and federal courts. Having handled varied types of civil litigation in areas such as: commercial disputes, real estate partition suits, trust/estate/fiduciary litigation, employer liability defense, construction disputes, non-compete agreement litigation, corporate shareholder and director disputes and other complex contract cases, Neal has learned that the only limitations you have are the ones you allow. Neal has also served as a featured continuing education speaker for several years running. When not working, Neal remains active in the community, by supporting local charities and other non-profit organizations, participating in intramural sports, and avidly following the Texas Longhorns.

Malpractice Insurance company Attorneys for estate planning attorneys Vacek & Freed et al.,

County Employee/Appointee (Associate Judge) Clarinda Comstock

Clarinda Comstock was a Defendant in a wrongful death action involving Willie Jo Mills. See SHERRY LYNN JOHNSON vs. DAVID DEXEL, ET AL SDTX Case 4:16-cv-03215

County Employee/Appointee (Associate Judge) Clarinda Comstock was represented in that case by Cory Reed and Zandra Foley, the same law firm and attorneys that are representing the Vacek & Freed estate planning attorneys in the case snatched out of the District Court by the probate court with no pending estate administration, none of the parties are heir to any estate and where the case has remained before Comstock without a plaintiff since Carl Brunsting resigned the office of independent executor February 19, 2015. Clarinda Comstock has never had the integrity to declare her conflicts of interest in the case and her former attorneys at Thompson Coe, have been getting paid for litigating a case that hasn't had a plaintiff since Carl Brunsting resigned the office of "independent executor" on February 19, 2015. In fact, it was Cory Reed in the -403 numbered case (the one snatched from the district court without a pending probate) that asked for a "status conference". In my opinion Clarinda Comstock is Harris County's Probate Mafia Under-boss and she can use the judges signature stamp on anything she chooses. The elected politicians called "Judge" may come and go but the County's Underboss remains whether the politicians called "Judge" are replaced or remain but it is the Under-boss that calls all the shots.

One would think that someone appointed as a temporary administrator for a decedents estate for the purpose of evaluating the "claims" in a probate case would mention the decedents will, the inventory, appraisal and list of claims, the claims docket and identify the devisee's in his report. The report of Temporary Administrator Attorney

Gregory Lester never mentions any of these things. Why not?
